

Job Title: Oriental Medical Doctor (OMD) - Practitioner (Non-faculty)

Location: Wongu University of Oriental Medicine

Qualifications:

1. Graduation from an accredited Master's program in Oriental Medicine or a related field.
2. Valid and active Nevada state OMD license.
3. Proficiency in traditional Oriental medicine techniques, including acupuncture, herbal medicine, cupping, moxibustion, and dietary therapy.
4. Strong diagnostic skills and ability to create individualized treatment plans based on patient needs.
5. Excellent communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to establish rapport and build lasting patient relationships.
6. Commitment to continuous learning and professional development in the field of Oriental medicine.
7. High level of integrity, professionalism, and ethical conduct.

About Us:

Founded in 2012 in Las Vegas, Nevada, Wongu University of Oriental Medicine is the first and only Oriental Medicine school in Nevada approved to grant a Master of Science degree in Oriental Medicine.

The mission of Wongu University is to educate students to become skilled Oriental Medicine practitioners who possess compassion and integrity. Oriental medicine is one of the oldest systems of medicine in history and has been used for thousands of years to prevent, diagnose, and treat disease.

Wongu University of Oriental Medicine and its master's-level program in Oriental medicine (MSOM) received accreditation in 2019 from the Accreditation Commission for Acupuncture and Herbal Medicine (ACAAM). ACAAM is recognized by the United States Department of Education as the specialized accreditation agency for institutions/programs preparing acupuncture and Oriental medicine practitioners.

Also, Wongu University's Master of Science in Oriental Medicine (MSOM) program has been approved by the California Acupuncture Board to be listed as a board-approved training program.

Job Summary:

The Oriental Medicine Doctor (OMD) will play a crucial role in providing comprehensive holistic healthcare services to patients at the Wongu Health Center. You will utilize your advanced knowledge of traditional Oriental Medicine practices, including acupuncture, herbal medicine, and other therapeutic techniques, to promote wellness, alleviate pain, and improve overall health. The ideal candidate will be a licensed practitioner who is passionate about holistic healing and committed to delivering high-quality patient-centered care.

Required Skills:

1. Acupuncture: Proficient in performing acupuncture treatments and skilled in selecting appropriate acupuncture points for various health conditions.
2. Herbal Medicine: Knowledgeable about a wide range of Chinese herbal remedies and their applications for different health issues.
3. Diagnostic Abilities: Capable of conducting comprehensive patient assessments and formulating accurate diagnoses according to Oriental Medicine principles.
4. Holistic Approach: Ability to approach healthcare from a holistic perspective, addressing physical, emotional, and spiritual aspects of well-being.

5. Communication: Effective verbal and written communication skills to explain treatment plans, answer patient questions, and provide clear instructions.
6. Empathy and Compassion: Demonstrated ability to empathize with patients' concerns and provide compassionate care.
7. Adaptability: Willingness to collaborate within a team-based environment and adapt to evolving healthcare practices and patient needs.

The OMD is responsible and accountable for the following:

1. Conduct thorough patient assessments, including health history and physical examinations, to develop personalized treatment plans based on Oriental medicine principles.
2. Administer acupuncture treatments, herbal remedies, cupping therapy, and other traditional modalities to address a wide range of health concerns.
3. Educate patients on the benefits of Oriental medicine, holistic wellness practices, and lifestyle modifications to support their healing journey, as well as monitor their progress.
4. Maintain accurate and detailed patient records, treatment notes, and progress reports per the Wongu Health Center policies and regulatory standards.
5. See a variety of patients, regardless of ailments and whether or not they are cash-pay patients or insurance patients.
6. Stay current with advancements in Oriental medicine, attend continuing education courses, and contribute to the clinic's knowledge base and best practices.
7. Adhere to all state and federal regulations, including practicing within the scope of licensure and maintaining compliance with Nevada's requirements.
8. Able to mentor any student observers and answer any questions they may have.
9. Foster a welcoming and healing environment for patients, promoting a positive clinic experience.
10. Able to collaborate with other healthcare professionals and recognize when referring patients out is necessary.

Please submit a cover letter, resume, and at least three references to:

Human Resource Office: hr@wongu.edu